Understanding Marriage Through Tim Keller's Perspective

The Biblical Foundation of Marriage

Keller's view of marriage is deeply rooted in Scripture, viewing it as a sacred covenant established by God. He often cites Ephesians 5:22-33, where the Apostle Paul compares the relationship between husband and wife to that of Christ and the church. Keller emphasizes that:

- Marriage is rooted in the creation narrative (Genesis 2), where man and woman are created for companionship and to complement each other.
- It is designed to mirror the divine relationship—God's covenant with His people.
- The purpose of marriage extends beyond personal happiness to reflect divine love and commitment.

By grounding marriage in biblical truth, Keller insists that its primary meaning is spiritual and relational, rooted in divine design rather than mere cultural traditions or personal preferences.

The Covenant, Not Just a Contract

- A contract is conditional and can be dissolved if conditions are not met.
