The Historical Evolution of Malayalam Literature

Origins and Ancient Literature

The roots of Malayalam literature can be traced back to the early medieval period, around the 9th century CE. The earliest known literary works include inscriptions, poetry, and religious texts. The Manipravalam style, a blend of Malayalam and Sanskrit, was prominent in early literature, especially in poetic compositions and religious scriptures.

Medieval and Renaissance Period

Between the 14th and 18th centuries, Malayalam literature flourished with the emergence of devotional poetry, folk tales, and epic narratives. Notable works from this era include Ramacharitam and Krishnagatha. The period also saw the rise of the Vazhappalli and Thirunizhal Bhagavata Purana.

Modern Malayalam Literature

The 19th and 20th centuries marked a renaissance in Malayalam literature, influenced by social reform movements and exposure to Western literary styles. Prominent writers like Kumaran Asan, Vallathol Narayana Menon, and Ulloor S. Parameswara Iyer revolutionized the literary scene. The advent of printing presses and newspapers further boosted literacy and literary dissemination.
