The Book of the Law (Liber AL vel Legis)

Origins and Reception

Published in 1904, The Book of the Law is believed by adherents to be a direct communication from a higher divine intelligence Crowley named Aiwass. Crowley claimed that during a mystical encounter in Cairo, Aiwass dictated the text to him over three days. This book is considered the central scripture of Thelema, containing the core commandments and philosophical principles.

Structure and Content

The Book of the Law is composed of three chapters, each purportedly dictated by a different divine voice: 1. Chapter II — delivered by Hadit, the divine spark within the individual, representing will, energy, and the core of personal identity. 3. Chapter III — spoken by Ra-Hoor-Khuit, the crown of the Sun, symbolizing conquest, sovereignty, and the new age. The text is poetic, enigmatic, and layered with symbolism, often requiring interpretation.
