Understanding the Origins of “Think on These Things”

John Maxwell’s teachings are deeply influenced by biblical scripture, particularly Philippians 4:8, which encourages believers to focus their thoughts on positive, virtuous, and admirable qualities. The phrase “Think on These Things” originates directly from this biblical verse, emphasizing the importance of mental discipline and intentional focus in cultivating a wholesome life. Maxwell, a renowned leadership expert, often draws from these spiritual principles to illustrate how our thought patterns shape our behaviors, attitudes, and ultimately, our success or failure. His interpretation of this scripture is not merely religious but also practical, advocating for mindfulness and deliberate mental focus as tools for effective leadership and personal fulfillment. Core Biblical Foundation: Philippians 4:8 > “Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.” This verse underscores the power of positive thinking and the importance of aligning one’s thoughts with virtuous qualities.
