harold arlen lions and tigers and bears oh my lyrics The phrase "Lions and tigers and bears, oh my!" is instantly recognizable to many as a classic line from the 1939 film The Wizard of Oz. While often associated with the iconic movie, this line has a rich history rooted in American culture, music, and theatrical performances. Behind the scenes of this memorable phrase lies an intriguing story involving Harold Arlen, one of the most influential composers of the 20th century, and his contributions to American musical theater and film. In this article, we delve into the origins of the phrase, Harold Arlen's connection to it, and explore the lyrics and cultural significance of the song it inspired.

Understanding the Origins of "Lions and Tigers and Bears, Oh My!"

The Cultural Significance of the Phrase

The phrase "Lions and tigers and bears, oh my!" is often used to express awe, fear, or surprise when faced with something intimidating or overwhelming. It has become a catchphrase emblematic of childhood innocence and curiosity, largely popularized by The Wizard of Oz.

The Wizard of Oz and the Phrase's Popularization

In the 1939 film adaptation of L. Frank Baum's The Wonderful Wizard of Oz, the Cowardly Lion, Tin Man, and Scarecrow encounter the forest filled with dangerous creatures. During this scene, Dorothy and her friends express their fear of the wild animals with the memorable line, "Lions and tigers and bears, oh my!" This line, delivered with theatrical flair, has since become ingrained in American pop culture.

Harold Arlen's Role in the Musical Landscape

Who Was Harold Arlen?

Harold Arlen (1905–1986) was an acclaimed American composer and songwriter, renowned for his contributions to jazz, popular music, and musical theater. His work is characterized by melodic richness and emotional depth, making him one of the most influential figures in American songwriting.

Notable Works by Harold Arlen

Some of Harold Arlen's most famous compositions include: - "Over the Rainbow" (from The Wizard of Oz) - "Stormy Weather" - "That Old Black Magic" - "Come Rain or Come Shine" - "It's Only a Paper Moon" His songs have become standards, covered by countless artists across generations.

Connecting Harold Arlen to "Lions and Tigers and Bears, Oh My!"

The Song Behind the Phrase

While the phrase "Lions and tigers and bears, oh my!" is closely associated with the Wizard of Oz film, the song that popularized it is not directly written by Harold Arlen but by others involved in the film's musical adaptation. However, Harold Arlen's Over the Rainbow—also from The Wizard of Oz—is often mistaken as the song linked to this phrase. In fact, the phrase appears in the context of the film's narrative, and the lyrics are delivered as a theatrical exclamation rather than a song lyric. Important clarification: - The iconic line is a spoken phrase, not a song lyric written by Harold Arlen. - Nonetheless, Harold Arlen's musical contributions to the film's soundtrack have cemented his legacy in connection with the story.
