Cindy Trimm advocates that mornings are a strategic time when spiritual forces are most receptive, making it the ideal moment to declare God's promises and command your day.

The Biblical Foundation for Commanding Your Morning

The concept of commanding your morning is rooted in scriptures such as Job 38:12-13, which speaks of commanding the morning to know its place, and Proverbs 4:18, which describes the path of the righteous as shining brighter. These verses encourage believers to speak God's Word into their day, asserting authority over circumstances rather than succumbing to them.
