What Does it Mean to be Transgender?

Transgender individuals are those whose gender identity—the deeply-felt internal sense of their own gender—differs from the sex they were assigned at birth. This divergence can manifest in various ways, including:

1. Hormonal differences
2. Physical transitions (e.g., surgeries, hormone therapy)
3. Social transitions (e.g., name, pronouns, presentation)

It is essential to recognize that being trans is about identity, not sexual orientation. Transgender people may identify as heterosexual, homosexual, bisexual, or asexual, regardless of their gender identity.
