Understanding the Origins of "Autumn Leaves"

The History and Background

"Autumn Leaves" originated as a French song titled "Les feuilles mortes," composed by Jacques Prevert (lyrics) and Joseph Kosma (music) in 1945. It was initially written as a poem, capturing the melancholy beauty of falling leaves and fleeting love. The song gained popularity in France and later became an international jazz standard, especially after jazz musicians like Cannonball Adderley and Bill Evans recorded memorable versions. In the United States, the song's English lyrics were penned by Johnny Mercer, and it was adapted into the version most pianists learn today. Its enduring appeal lies in its poignant melody and harmonic richness, making it a favorite for jazz improvisation and classical interpretation alike.
