Understanding the Role of a Ruling Elder in PCUSA

What Is a Ruling Elder?

A ruling elder in the Presbyterian Church (USA) is an individual elected by their local congregation to serve on the session, which is the governing body of the church. Ruling elders are responsible for:

1. Leading worship and administering sacraments
2. Participating in decision-making processes for the church
3. Overseeing the spiritual and administrative needs of the congregation
4. Representing the church in wider denominational matters

Their role is distinct from that of teaching elders (ministers), but both are instrumental in church leadership.

Significance of Ordination for Ruling Elders

Ordination signifies that the individual has been recognized by the church community as having the spiritual maturity, gifts, and call to serve as a ruling elder. The ordination process involves:

1. Discernment and approval by the congregation and presbytery
2. Completion of specific educational and spiritual formation requirements
3. Ritual of ordination, where the individual is formally set apart for service

Following ordination, the ruling elder receives a certificate that serves as an official record and recognition of their role.
