Language Structure and Syntax

Hindi and English are structurally different languages: - Hindi is an Indo-Aryan language with a Subject-Object-Verb (SOV) order. - English follows a Subject-Verb-Object (SVO) order. This fundamental difference can make direct translation awkward, requiring rephrasing for natural flow.

Cultural and Contextual Nuances

Adaptation

Used mainly in creative works, adaptation involves modifying content to suit the target culture while preserving the original message's spirit.

Transcreation

A blend of translation and creative writing, transcreation involves recreating the content to evoke the same emotions and impact in the target language, often used in marketing and advertising.
